

CITIZENS' LEAGUE ENDORSES WHOLE TICKET AS MADE

Only One Minor Discordant
Note Marks Monday Night's Meeting When Johnson Opposes Larsen's Candidacy.

Indorsement of the entire legislative ticket which qualified last Saturday, was accomplished Monday by the Citizens' league with but a single discordant note in an otherwise happy gathering. About 60 members of the league were present when R. L. Jordan, chairman of the executive committee, called the meeting to order shortly after 8 p.m. at the Merchants exchange.

Mr. Jordan stated in the beginning that the chairman of the league, Bolton Smith, was in Europe on his way there, and called for that particular meeting. Leslie M. Stratton was nominated by Frank N. Fisher and named by a unanimous vote.

Following a few remarks in which he expressed his appreciation of the honor conferred upon him, Mr. Stratton called upon R. L. Jordan, as chairman of the executive committee, for a report. Mr. Jordan then read the following resolution:

"Whereas, the following named gentlemen have heretofore qualified as candidates in the Democratic primaries to be held on Aug. 5 next, for the offices set opposite their respective names, to-wit:

"Hon. Walter C. Chandler, senator from Shelby and Tipton counties.
"Hon. Frank D. Fuller, senator from Shelby county.
"Hon. Lois D. Bejach, senator from Shelby county.
"Hon. Frank H. Gallor, representative in the general assembly from Shelby county.
"Hon. L. P. Sunderland, representative in the general assembly from Shelby county.
"Hon. James H. Patton, representative in the general assembly from Shelby county.
"Hon. Carl A. Larsen, representative in the general assembly from Shelby county.
"Hon. Lee P. Cummins, representative in the general assembly from Shelby county.
"Hon. John T. Shea, representative in the general assembly from Shelby county.
"Hon. E. E. Jeter, representative in the general assembly from Shelby county.
"Hon. Chas. Dean, floater representative in the general assembly from Shelby and Fayette counties, and the name of the members of the Citizens' league of Memphis, Shelby county, Tenn., that the gentleman named will represent Memphis and Shelby and Tipton and Fayette counties, hereby do hereby reflect credit upon themselves and their constituents; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved by the said Citizens' league, in mass meeting assembled, that the candidacy of said gentlemen in said Democratic primaries be and the same is hereby indorsed by the Citizens' league, and that the membership of said league do hereby pledge their hearty support of said league to the candidates named, both in the primary and in the general election to be held in November."

A motion was immediately made by J. M. Walker that the resolution be adopted. This motion was seconded and discussion called for when E. Lehman Johnson offered an amendment under the terms of which the name of Carl Larsen be referred to a special committee, this committee to be given power to replace Mr. Larsen on the ticket if it saw fit. There was no second to this motion and Mr. Johnson offered a second amendment which favored the adoption of the resolution and indorsement of the ticket with the exception of Carl Larsen. There was no second to this motion and the report was adopted as read.

Mr. Johnson stated that in view of the failure to get a second to his motion he felt that in justice to Mr. Larsen he should explain his attitude. This was left to the action of the league by the chairman, but if any of the members were curious to know Mr. Johnson's motive it was not evident. When the vote was taken all members of the league except Mr. Johnson voted for the resolution. In casting his negative vote Mr. Johnson explained that he did so because of Mr. Larsen's name on the ticket.

This single discordant note in the meeting did not develop again except in more hearty applause for Carl Larsen when he was later called upon for a speech.

Chairman Stratton called upon each of the candidates for a few remarks and all of them pledged their earnest efforts to the people of Memphis and Shelby, Tipton and Fayette counties in bringing about better conditions and the enactment of such legislation as needed by the state, county or community. Lee P. Cummins of Knoxville, was the only one of the 11 candidates who was not present at the meeting.

executive committee discharged and a new committee appointed was defeated after considerable discussion. Frank N. Fisher called attention to the fact that the present committee had been chosen not merely to select the present ticket but as a permanent committee and that their duty had not ended with that work. This committee will therefore confer with the Democratic executive committee and the candidates in the preparation of the platform.

TO TALK ON EMBALMING.
JACKSON, Tenn., July 6. (Sp.)—Independence day was celebrated by the people of Jackson Monday in a continuous round of fun and entertainment at the fairgrounds, the proceeds from the ticket sale to be applied to the municipal bathing pool. In obedience to the proclamation of Mayor Johnson all the business houses of the city closed their doors to allow their employees to participate in the big celebration.

Amusements

Loew's Lyceum.
For six generations members of the Gallier family have been musicians. Quite unusual it is that one family contains not a single member whose fancy did not run along the lines of music. The Galliers, who live at Loew's Lyceum, the first half of this week are the present representatives in the American show business. These two muses present a violin and accordion bit set in a riot of color. They are not only talented melody artists, but good showmen for the two know exactly how to play and what to play. The Galliers began their career as a piano accordion player at the age of five. The instrument was now used by them in Italy during the war. Only by special order of King Victor Emmanuel was such possible.

Moving Pictures

Strand.
"Suds," featuring Mary Pickford, at the Strand this week, is a silver sheet version of "Op o' Me Thumb" the play which Maude Adams achieved international success. As a stage production it created a most unusual sensation in some years ago, and immediately after its success there, Charles Frohman acquired the American rights for his leading star, Maude Adams. The play was used by her during her most successful engagement at the Empire theater, New York, and with exceptional success on her tours throughout the country.

Majestic.
The idea that led to the production of Mack Bennett's five-reel masterpiece, "Down on the Farm," at the Majestic Tuesday and Wednesday, arose from reality of life on the Mack Bennett farm which occupies a part of his large acreage of property and "for in Los Angeles. Some of his stars, notably Louise Fazenda, Marie Prevost, Charlie Murray, Jimmy Finlayson and Ben Turpin were trying their hands on the difficult job of reducing the high cost of living and the comedy is the result.

Princess.
Converting an island off the coast of California into the abode of South Sea cannibals was one of the tasks confronting Director James Cruze during the filming of the new Houdini picture, "Terror Island," at the Princess Tuesday only. Tropical scenery was transplanted for the occasion, and some of the toughest citizens available were hired to portray the cannibals. "Terror Island" is a thrilling story of love and adventure.

JACKSON GUARDSMEN AWAIT ENCAMPMENT

JACKSON, Tenn., July 6. (Sp.)—A complete outfit of new uniforms for members of Company L, local unit, National guards of Tennessee, has been received and will be issued to the guardsmen at the regular drill Tuesday night. It was announced Saturday by Capt. R. H. Bond, company commander. Sixteen puttees will be issued with the new uniforms, which are according to the latest regulation. Those members of the company who desire new uniforms will be required to turn in their old equipment.

The local company is preparing for the annual state encampment, which will be held at Camp John Sevier, near Knoxville, Tenn., for 15 days, beginning July 15. Two regular drills are held each week, and the guardsmen are practicing diligently with a view of taking some of the state honors this year. Local officers and about 100 enlisted men will attend the encampment from Jackson.

HUNTSVILLE CELEBRATES STATE'S ANNIVERSARY

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., July 6. (Sp.)—The greatest celebration of Independence day that has been staged in Huntsville in several years attracted a crowd that filled the city today. There was at the same time a celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the admission of Alabama into the union.

The feature of the public celebration was a flower parade in which Miss Louise Hay rode as queen. Miss Hay was elected by popular vote in a contest which closed Saturday morning. The case of the Chaco is known to have been also brought before the conference by the Bolivian peace delegate, Senator Montes. It was decided, it is understood here, to postpone the question for early settlement by the league.

These problems hold for Bolivia, hemmed in on all sides by other states, the realization of her greatest political and commercial ambition, her own territorial outlet to the sea. Possession of the port of Arica would give her an outlet to the Pacific, and, curiously, Chaco, or at least a part of it, would give her access to the Atlantic. WORLD LEAGUE TO SETTLE SQUABBLE IN SOUTH AMERICA

Buenos Aires, July 5.—The famous Tacna and Arica dispute involving Chile, Peru and Bolivia, is not the only South American problem which may go before the league of nations for settlement. There has existed for years a controversy between Paraguay and Bolivia over a strip of territory in the heart of South America as big as the state of California. This, it is understood, is on the program for consideration by the league.

It is probably not generally known that when the American peace experts under Col. House collected their data on world problems for use at the Paris conference, they included a report on the issues between Bolivia and Paraguay over the possession of this territory, which is called on Bolivian maps the Bolivian Chaco and on Paraguayan maps the Paraguayan Chaco.

steamships from the United States and Europe could take on cargo transported across the northern edge of the Chaco from the Bolivian mines and farms.

But in the year 1886, a few years after Bolivia had lost in war the Pacific port of Antofagasta and was turning her eyes eastward, Bahia Negra was seized by Paraguay and has been in her possession ever since. Paraguay, furthermore, made land allotments in the Chaco, whose unsurpassed pasture and great quebracho forests were beginning to attract the white man. A mysterious, unexplored land, stretching northward from the Pilcomayo river on the Argentine border and westward from the River Paraguay into undisputed Bolivian territory, it has not been directly crossed by white men since the days of the Spanish conquerors, since the year 1845 to be exact. Except near the rivers, it is inhabited only by savage Indian tribes to this day, but both nations looked forward to its possibilities, which recently have included that of finding petroleum.

FARMERS ARE ENLISTED IN WAR ON "BOLSHEVIKS"

CHICAGO, July 5.—It's the zero hour for German potato bugs. Austrian watermelon borers, Turkish scimitar worms and all other alien enemies of American plant life.

B. T. Galloway, pathologist with the foreign seeds and plants division of the department of agriculture, who addressed a convention of the American Association of Nurseries here recently, declared the farmers of this country should spring to arms to wage war on over the two thousand, two hundred brands and species of foreign bugs, worms and insects about to invade our shores.

"American bugs and worms destroying plant life are bad enough without the importation of Bolshevik bugs, 'red' insects, and other undesirable from foreign shores," he said. One hundred and ten insect pests, whose depredations have caused losses of more than $500,000 annually, have already arrived and are being fought by the department of agriculture, with an annual expenditure of $1,000,000. Fifteen million dollars has been spent by the New England states for combative, curative and eradication measures."

BOYS FIND TREASURE.
HAVANA, Ill., July 6.—While digging on the Harris farm near here two boys—Clyde Elmore and Alvin Stuart—unearthed a tin can containing $40 in gold and $50 in currency. The money was decomposed and evidently had been hidden years ago. It has been sent to Washington for redemption.

44 Mr. Bowers' Stores 44

—IN ALL PARTS OF THE CITY—

"Unto the 3d Generation"

THE children of from "nine to nineteen years ago" are grown-up men and women today, and many of them have children almost old enough to begin to teach the value of thrift and economy.

From the very beginning the Bowers Stores have done everything possible to facilitate and encourage the "knee-high customer" to trade with them and learn to practice economy.

There are thousands of customers trading with the Bowers Stores who began when they were "knee high," and because the Bowers Stores made it as safe for a child to do the family buying as an experienced housekeeper—and not only safe, but attractive.

Today the Bowers Stores offer more attractions than ever, and, moreover, cater strongly to the "knee-high customer" who someday will train the "coming generation" to follow in their footsteps.

The Bowers Stores have served faithfully two generations and now are beginning with "the third."

A list of household needs in the hands of a child gets the same quick personal attention given any other customer, the same prices with the same "saving" results.

The children are not forced to wander aimlessly about looking for something out of reach or hard to find, and they do not return empty-handed or short half they are sent for.

When habits of thrift, when young, are cultivated, and when the experience of paying cash and buying "for the family" is felt in after years, the Bowers Stores feel sure that the "knee-high customer" is well worth while for "once a customer is always a customer."

The Golden Wine of our Fathers

VIRGINIA Dare Wine, the olden, golden wine which dates from Sir Walter Raleigh's day, is vinted and fermented as before. All its good old luscious flavor and old mellowness remain.

Virginia Dare Highball
One-third Virginia Dare Wine; two-thirds carbonated water with cracked ice in Highball glass. Like champagne. Serve very cold.

VIRGINIA DARE

Wine
De-Alcoholized

Drink it straight—or as a cocktail, hot toddy, highball, rickey, cobbler or fizz.
Our free booklet, "The Art of Hospitality" tells you how to mix them. Write for it.
